Dear FPC Denton Church Family,

Time to begin a new year! The liturgical church year started at the end of November by switching from the Gospel of Luke readings back to the Gospel of Matthew. You might want to consider reading Matthew this month or engaging in a "Read the Bible in One Year" program. I started last year on my "Read the Bible in Three Years" program---my Bible is opened every day, including devotionals and other Christian writings. I'm not bragging—it is just a part of my personal spiritual walk.

Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, who writes lyrics using Scripture to lift up the different themes and readings from the Bible, has an interesting, thought-provoking one: "If We Talk of Thoughts and Prayers" Tune: O Waly Waly ("Though I May Speak")

If we just talk of thoughts and prayers and don't live out a faith that dares, and don't take on the ways of death, our thoughts and prayers are fleeting breath.

If we just dream of what could be and do not build community, and do not seek to change our ways, our dreams of change are false displays.

If we just sing of doing good and don't walk through our neighborhood to learn its hope, to ease its pain, our talk of good is simply vain.

God, may our prayers and dreams and songs lead to a faith that takes on wrongs—that works for peace and justice too, then will our prayers bring joy to you.

Biblical references: Isaiah 58; Matthew 7: 21, 24-27; 1 Corinthians 13: 1, James 2: 14-26; 1 John 3: 18-24.

Blessings!

Debbie

Love Notes from Pastor Debbie

I'm writing this on Christmas Day! We've had a wonderful month of worship: 4 Sundays of Advent, Lessons and Carols (and the choir and the music was stellar!), Christmas Eve Candlelight and Communion (and the Tamales Dinner was delicious!), and Christmas Day service. And we will begin 2023 with a New Year's Day service---and what a great way to begin this new year---and with Communion too! Come, take every opportunity to worship this year! Peace and goodwill begin with glorifying God!

Here are the readings for January:

Mission News

Food Pantry- We were filling the pantry one day and someone stopped by asking if we were filling or taking from the pantry. This person stated that she had been homeless in the past, but is now helping fill the pantry, “to give back” from when she was in need.

We are aware of a need for diapers and wipes, so remember this when shopping for the food pantry.

During some hard rains this fall the ground in front of the pantry was very muddy. Someone has since donated and installed pieces of flagstone in front of the pantry. That has been very helpful, thank you.

Direction 61:3 (formerly Zoie’s Place) is up and running with a house for teenage girls who are aging out of Foster Care. Cumberland Children’s Home is doing the same much needed service, assisting kids aging out of foster care to have shelter while they get jobs and get established in the community.

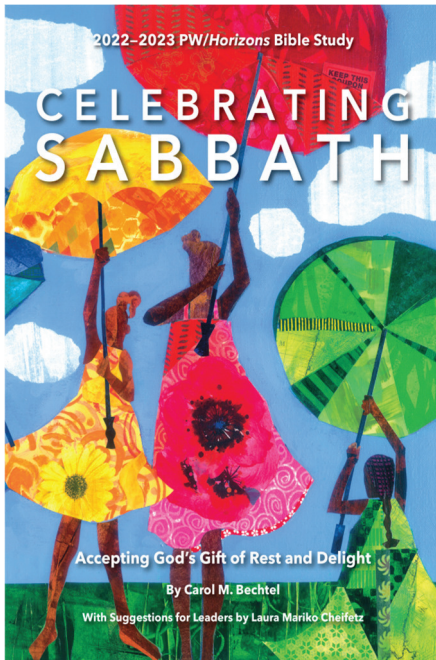

A scripture given me by Marlene Nobles says it all.

He who despises his neighbor sins, but blessed is he who is kind to the needy. Proverbs 14:21

Happy 2023!!!

Talk happiness; talk faith; talk health. Say you are well, and all is well with you, and God shall hear your words and make them true.

The Disciple's Class

Once you've met Jesus, you are never the same again. His teaching challenges your thinking. His compassion softens your heart. His love turns your life around.

In this thirteen session LifeGuide Bible Study, evangelist Leighton Ford leads you through thirteen studies from the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John) that will open your eyes anew--or for the first time--to Jesus Christ.

This LifeGuide Bible Study in IVP Connect's revised format features questions for starting group discussions and for meeting God in personal reflection, as well as a "Now or Later" section following each session to help you act on what you learn.

Thank You!

We all love the Carol of the birds performed by Beverly Hoch. Thank you! Christmas Eve service was a great delight!

Celtic Cross deadline is January 22 for February publication. Please send your news and articles to “Newsletter@fpcdenton.org

In the Kitchen

In 2002, Presbyterian Women at First Presbyterian Church published the revised edition of “In the Kitchen,” their favorite recipes. The first edition was published in 1993. The ladies of the church, and some men, provided their favorite recipes.

I hope you enjoy looking back at these glimpses of times past.
