Dear FPC Denton Church Family,

Our Lenten devotional this year is "The Joy of Salvation". It does have inspirational quotes from the writings of Henri J. M. Nouwen. I found this particular devotional to be very relevant---and I hope you do as well. One reading lifts up this thought: "Sometimes our seemingly ordinary lives, and our place in God's plans, seem insignificant. You may not recognize the unique and important ways that you have been a blessing for the faith and life of others through the years. But God knows. And that's all that matters. As you continue to let the Word of Christ fill your heart and mind and life with the riches of his grace, the Holy Spirit will help you realize that your seemingly ordinary life is, in fact, a sacred life that is playing a necessary and important role in the fulfillment of God's plans and promises." Words to ponder!

May your walk with God in Christ be a blessed one—not only in this season---but always!

Blessings!
Debbie

Love Notes from Pastor Debbie

The Lenten season is about to begin! We have our Lenten devotionals in the Narthex. We also have a "Lenten calendar" somewhat like the Advent calendars for your children and grandchildren—even for the "young at heart"! Easter is April 9th! I don't know what any local "groundhog" saw---I just know this crazy weather of 42 one day and 70 the next just means we live in Texas! Our Ash Wednesday service is February 22nd at 7:00 p.m.

Here are the readings for March:

March 12, 2023: 3rd Sunday in Lent. Psalm 95, Exodus 17: 1-7, John 4: 5-42, Romans 5: 1-11. Sermon Title: "Faith, Part 2" Theme: Faith. Texts: Exodus 17, John 4.

March 19, 2023: 4th Sunday in Lent. Psalm 23, 1 Samuel 16: 1-13, John 9: 1-41, Ephesians 5: 8-14. Sermon Title: "The 23rd Psalm" Theme: Healing Text: Psalm 23.

Notes from the Mission Committee

This has been another busy month for the mission committee!

The shopping bags which will serve as an outreach tool for F.P.C. have been designed and are ready to be ordered. Before long, you will be able to purchase yours.

The Little Food Pantry remains a busy place, with many people receiving and donating food supplies. Contributions are always needed. I have received countless words of thanks from those using the pantry. We will now be placing bibles in the pantry. Those bibles that have been placed have been selected by people using the pantry. We will continue to provide diapers when we have them available. Large packages are divided into smaller ones. Diapers and other baby supplies can be placed on the bottom shelf of the pantry.

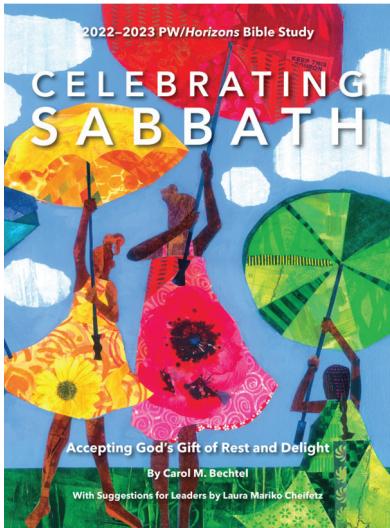

The Little Free Pantry has suffered repeated damage- some from weather and general use, and some from abuse. We will research other pantry locations to see what they are doing to assist with this problem.

Direction 61:3 (formerly Zoie's Place) has opened a home for former foster children in Denton. They will be having a fundraiser soon. Direction 61:3 is one of the agencies supported by First Presbyterian Church.

Many thanks for your contributions and continued support of the projects of the mission committee.

In the Kitchen

In 2002, Presbyterian Women at First Presbyterian Church published the revised edition of "In the Kitchen," their favorite recipes. The first edition was published in 1993. The ladies of the church, and some men, provided their favorite recipes.

I hope you enjoy looking back at these glimpses of times past.

Eileen Wilson's Glazed Lemon Bread (page 181)

$\frac{1}{2}$	c. butter, melted
$1\frac{1}{4}$	c. sugar
2	eggs
$\frac{1}{4}$	tsp. almond extract
$1\frac{1}{2}$	c. flour
1	tsp. baking powder
$\frac{1}{2}$	tsp. salt
$\frac{1}{2}$	c. milk
1	Tbsp. grated lemon peel
$\frac{1}{2}$	c. chopped nuts
3	Tbsp. fresh lemon juice

Bled well the butter and 1 c. sugar. Beat in eggs (one at a time). Add lemon extract. Sift together dry ingredients; add to egg mixture alternately with milk. Blend just enough to mix. Fold in peel and nuts. Turn into a greased $8\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{1}{2} \times 2\frac{1}{2}$ inch ovenproof glass loaf pan. Bake in a slow oven at 325° about 70 minutes or until loaf tests done in center.

Mix lemon juice and other $\frac{1}{4}$ c. sugar. Pour over hot loaf. Cool 10 minutes. Remove from pan; cool on rack. Do not cut for 24 hours.
