Dear FPC Denton Church Family,
I found this on the Presbyterian Outlook Facebook page. It said it was read at a recent Presbyterian group meeting that the Administrator of the page had just attended. It is "A Christmas Prayer" written by Walter Brueggemann. According to Wikipedia: "He is an American Old Testament scholar and theologian who is widely considered one of the most influential Old Testament scholars of the last several decades. His work often focuses on the Hebrew prophetic tradition and sociopolitical imagination of the Church. He argues that the Church must provide a counter-narrative to the dominant forces of consumerism, militarism, and nationalism." I remember studying some of his work in Seminary. I did read this prayer as a devotional for our last Session meeting as I think it gives us "food for thought" in light of our current situation around the world.

"A Christmas Prayer" printed in his book Awed to Heaven, Rooted in Earth: Prayers of Walter Brueggemann. 2003

In violence and travail

We give you thanks for the babe born in violence.

We give you thanks for the miracle of Bethlehem, born into the Jerusalem heritage.

We do not understand why the innocents must be slaughtered; we know that your kingdom comes in violence and travail. Our time would be a good time for your kingdom to come, because we have had enough of violence and travail.

So we wait with eager longing, and with enormous fear, because your promises do not coincide with our favorite injustices.

We pray for the coming of your kingdom on earth as it is around your heavenly throne.

We are a people grown weary of waiting.

We dwell in the midst of cynical people, and we have settled for what we can control.

We do know that you hold the initiative for our lives, that your love planned our salvation before we saw the light of day.

And so we wait for your coming, in your vulnerable baby in whom all things are made new.

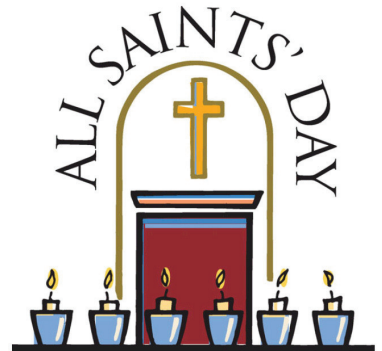

Amen. Blessings! Debbie

Sacred Encounters: The Power and Presence of Jesus Christ in Luke-Acts

By Olive Mahabir

Within the pages of this study, Olive Mahabir invites you to consider Jesus and Jesus' disciples who shared the Good News through sacred Encounters with everyday people.

The Gospel According to Luke and the book of the Acts of the Apostles, or Luke-Acts, "one story in two parts," demonstrate the unfolding of God's redemptive purposes in human history and present a distinctive perspective on the person and work of Jesus Christ. Written by Luke, a physician and traveling companion of Paul, the message to the early Christian community (and to us) is radical, inclusive, and hope-filled.

Big Thank you

Want to give a big thank you to Beverly and Mike for all the fun luncheon. We love the Octoberfest. A big thank you to Jim and Lynn for all the work buying and stocking the Food Bank. A big thank you to all the ones who give food to help.

In the Kitchen

In 2002, Presbyterian Women at First Presbyterian Church published the revised edition of "In the Kitchen," their favorite recipes. The first edition was published in 1993. The ladies of the church, and some men, provided their favorite recipes.

I hope you enjoy looking back at these glimpses of times past.
