Dear FPC Denton Church Family,

I just finished up talking about prayer—again (my Sunday sermon from James, chapter 5).

Here's more about prayer: Luke 18: 1: "He (Jesus) spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up." The Bible tells us:

God hears our prayers (Isaiah 65: 24; Micah 7:7)

To pray continually ( 1 Thessalonians 5: 17)

That the Holy Spirit speaks to God on our behalf when we pray (Romans 8: 26-27)

That God answers our prayers (James 5: 13-18; Matthew 7: 7-8)

How to pray (Matthew 6: 9-11; Luke 11: 2-4)

Prayer is a means of communication with God. Without communication, we cannot know God. Prayer is an act of submission and humility. When we pray, we acknowledge God as the Holy One and our Redeemer. Prayer changes things. When we pray, we receive strength, wisdom, courage, comfort, and direction. We see God in action. Prayer changes lives. Let it change yours. Blessings!

MASK REQUIRED

Dearest (long suffering and patient) FPC family,
The church received the notification this morning from the City of Denton that all indoor meetings in Denton again will require the wearing of masks. In light of this, we feel it is wise to postpone the planned resumption of coffee time before the service.

Thank you for your flexibility and prayers. Blessings, Beverly Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, Bathsheba, and Mary—Matthew names these women for a reason. How might Jesus have heard the stories of his grandmothers? What might the young Jesus have felt, as he heard about his family? What might the stories of these women have added to his sense of identity, as part of a particular family in a particular time and place? And what can Jesus's grandmothers-of-the-faith teach us? By exploring these stories together, we will have a richer idea of what the good news is.

In the Kitchen

In 2002, Presbyterian Women at First Presbyterian Church published the revised edition of "In the Kitchen," their favorite recipes. The first edition was published in 1993. The ladies of the church, and some men, provided their favorite recipes.

I hope you enjoy looking back at these glimpses of times past.
