Dear FPC Denton Church Family,

This month we will take a look at Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit in The Apostles' Creed. Adam Hamilton wrote a book called Creed—What Christians Believe and Why—Exploring the Apostles' Creed. Let's review this part of the creed:

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of the Father, and will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit," (and yes, just like with The Lord's Prayer, there are some differences in words).

Here are some points Mr. Hamilton lifts up:

- ◆ Sources of information about Jesus: "The earliest and most extensive information we have concerning Jesus comes from the 27 documents of the New Testament, nearly all of which were written between A.D. 50 and 95, including the four Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John."
- ◆ What Christians believe about Jesus: "Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary" gives many people pause in their ability to accept this belief. This was foretold by the prophets and was fulfilled by God.
- ◆ Jesus—Savior, Messiah, God's only Son: "If you struggle to explain or make sense of the Incarnation or the deity of Christ, you are in good company. The church wrestled with these questions for nearly 300 years until finally, at the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D., they settled on language clarifying what the majority of the church believe." It took time and a lot of "discussion" to come to a consensus. But the basis of the Apostles' Creed was already written by God given through the Holy Spirit to the apostles.
- ◆ Some people have difficulty with the "descended to the dead": "The idea is that Jesus experienced what we experience when we die. But there was more than just his experiencing the realm of the dead. The church also came to believe that Jesus, during the time between his death and resurrection, offered salvation to those in death's clutches since the beginning of the world."

- ◆ “On the third day, he rose again”: “The resurrection of Jesus is a difficult thing for people to believe. The disciples and the early church did not simply proclaim that Jesus was dead and lived on in heaven and in their hearts; rather, they pointed to an empty tomb and noted that Jesus’ body was gone. Further, they claimed not only to have seen him but to have touched him and eaten with him at various times during a period of several weeks. The disciples were radically changed by their experiences with Jesus following his resurrection. These men, who had fled when Jesus was arrested and had been hiding behind locked doors the day after his death, became bold and courageous, risking their own lives to proclaim what they had seen.”
- ◆ The Holy Spirit in the Old Testament: “There are 80-90 references to the Spirit of God in the Old Testament. In some cases the Spirit of God is said to be what gives each human being life. In several cases the Spirit is clearly the source of creative and artistic gifts. Sometimes the Old Testament teaches that the Spirit is the source of wisdom and leadership.”
- ◆ The Holy Spirit in the New Testament: “The New Testament describes a veritable outbreak of the Spirit’s work. It starts in the stories of both Jesus’ and John the Baptist’s conceptions in Luke’s Gospel and explodes across the pages of the Acts of the Apostles, as the Spirit falls upon all believers.”
- ◆ The Holy Spirit and the Doctrine of the Trinity: “Christians believe in one God. We also believe the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God. Christians spent more than 400 years seeking to clarify what they believed and articulating it in the creeds. While the idea of the Trinity is implicit in the New Testament, the word Trinity doesn’t appear explicitly until the second and third centuries, in the writings of Tertullian, a Christian author, thinker, and theologian. What is apparent is that the human mind cannot fully comprehend the nature of God.”

Is your appetite whetted to learn more? Stay tuned for “I believe...in the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.” next month!

Blessings! Debbie

Love Notes from Pastor Debbie:

I'm writing this on our first day of 100 degree heat! It's HOT! But this, too, shall pass, and we will soon be into the fall season. I see posts on Facebook longing for the "-BER" months (September, October....) God designed our earth to have seasons for planting, growing, harvesting, and resting—and He meant for us to enjoy all the seasons!

COME BEAT THE HEAT!! Join us in our 4th ANNUAL SUNDAE SUNDAY with lunch after service featuring ice cream and 'dogs'!

Right: The new sign outside of the Prayer Garden

We're excited to share that our new signs are up at First Presbyterian Church—and they look fantastic! These beautiful additions brighten our property and make our church even more welcoming to members and visitors alike.

Thoughtfully designed, the colors closely match our original signage to preserve the legacy and rich history of our congregation. It's a small change with a big impact, helping to connect the past with the present as we continue to grow in faith and community.

The updated look complements our grounds and reflects the warmth we strive to offer inside and out. Come by and see for yourself!

Bottom: More toe-tapping with Blue GrassFire (Becca Maxwell, bass ; Rachel Yeatts, mandolin and vocals ; Ethan Hope, guitar)

The July 13th service at First Presbyterian Church was filled with joy as Blue Grassfire brought their Bluegrass sound and toe-tapping gospel to worship. It was a morning of heartfelt music, clapping hands, and a few spontaneous "Amens!"

Afterward, we gathered for an incredible and delicious BBQ luncheon. It was so good, in fact, that no one remembered to snap a single photo! The laughter, good conversation and full plates said it all.

We're grateful to Blue Grassfire for sharing their talents and to everyone who made the day such a memorable celebration of faith, fellowship, and food. We hope to welcome them back again soon!

Big thanks to everyone who helped make the Denton Christian Preschool Garage Sale a success! From donated treasures to shopping support, your generosity helped raise over $2,000 to support the work of DCP.

It was a fantastic community effort, and the preschool staff is beyond grateful for all who sorted, hauled, priced, and purchased. Funds will go toward classroom needs, supplies, and enriching learning experiences for our little ones.

Events like this remind us what's possible when our community comes together. Thank you for making a difference!

Mission News:

The church is preparing for a back-to-school collection to support Denton Christian Preschool, with a list of needed items to be provided soon. In addition, a donation was made to Interfaith Ministries to assist in purchasing backpacks for students returning to school.

Visitor packets containing information about the church have been assembled and are available to be shared with newcomers. Church members are also asked to submit any updates for the church directory to Josh, after which labels will be created to update the current version.

Looking ahead to the holiday season, plans are in place to set up a Christmas card board during Advent. Members are encouraged to participate by sharing a card with their church family. In other mission efforts, Session approved a $2,500 donation from the Mission Memorial Fund to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance to support flood relief efforts in Texas. The recent Pentecost offering raised $240.

In the Kitchen

In 2002, Presbyterian Women at First Presbyterian Church published the revised edition of "In the Kitchen," their favorite recipes. The first edition was published in 1993. The ladies of the church, and some men, provided their favorite recipes.

I hope you enjoy looking back at these glimpses of times past.

Taco Casserole (page 116)

- 2 lb. lean ground beef
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1 can evaporated milk
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- 1 c. enchilada sauce
- 1 can pinto beans
- 1 4 oz. can green chiles
- 1 11oz bag tortilla chips
- 4 c. grated cheese

Brown beef and onion in skillet. In saucepan, heat milk, soups, enchilada sauce, and green chiles until bubbly. Add beans. Crush tortilla chips and spread half into a lightly greased 9X13 inch casserole dish. Cover with half the meat, half the sauce, and half the cheese. Repeat layers. Bake at 350° for 30 minutes or until bubbly.
